FEC MAIL ROOM

2002 MAR -5 P-2:01

February 8, 2002

Friends of Max Cleland
461 Senate Dirksen Building
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing to request a refund of the contribution made to Friends of Max Cleland by WELLPAC, WellPoint Health Networks Political Action Committee, in the amount of $1,000.00 (check #1059, check date 4/16/01). Regrettably, we inadvertently exceeded our campaign contribution limitations to Senator Cleland, which had been met for both the Primary and General elections prior to the date of this contribution.

If you have any questions, please contact me at your earliest convenience at (805) 557-6788.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Susan K. Nagy

Enzi For Senate Committee
P. O. Box 2775
Cody, WY 82414

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing to request a refund of the contribution made to Enzi For Senate Committee by WELLPAC, WellPoint Health Networks Political Action Committee, in the amount of $1000.00 (check #1089, check date 6/27/01).

Regrettably, we inadvertently exceeded our Primary election campaign contribution limitation to Senator Enzi. This occurred because, prior to February 17, 2000, WELLPAC was considered an affiliated PAC with the Blue Cross Blue Shield Association's BluePAC by the Federal Election Commission. Although this affiliation was legally terminated on February 17, 2000, WELLPAC must aggregate all contributions made by BluePAC and affiliated Blue Plans prior to that date in calculating our total contribution to Senator Enzi for the 1998-2002 election cycle.

Upon receipt of the requested refund, WELLPAC will make a new $1000.00 contribution designated for the General election.

If you have any questions, please contact me at your earliest convenience at (805) 557-6788.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Susan K. Nagy
